

Dryer venting should not be made of flammable material, preferably rigid smooth wall material and should have a bird cover over the outside of the exhaust opening.

